Prayer after Communion

FAMILIAM tuam, quæsumus, Dómine, quam de beáti Ioseph sollemnitáte lætántem ex huius altáris alimónia satiásti, perpétua protectióne defénde, et tua in ea propitiátus dona custódi.

LORD, today you nourish us at this altar as we celebrate the feast of Saint Joseph. Protect your Church always, and in your love watch over the gifts you have given us.

Opening Prayer

DEUS, qui Verbum tuum in útero Vírginis Mariæ veritátem carnis humánæ suscipere voluísti, concéde, quæsumus, ut, qui Redemptórem nostrum Deum et hómínem confitémur, ipsíus étiam divínæ natúræ me-reámur esse consórtes.

GOD OUR FATHER, your Word became man and was born of the Virgin Mary. May we become more like Jesus Christ, whom we acknowledge as our redeemer, God and man.

Prayer after Communion

IN méntibus nostris, quæsumus, Dómine, veræ fídei sacraménta confírma, ut, qui concéptum de Vírgine Deum verum et hómínem confitémur, per eius salutíferæ resurrectíonis poténtiam, ad ætérnam mereámur perveníre lætítiam.

FATHER, all-powerful and ever-living God, we do well always and everywhere to give you thanks through Jesus Christ our Lord.

He came to save mankind by becoming a man himself. The Virgin Mary, receiving the angel's message in faith, conceived by the power of the Spirit and bore your Son in purest love. In Christ, the eternal truth, your promise to Israel came true. In Christ, the hope of all peoples, man's hope was realized beyond all expectation.

Through Christ the angels of heaven offer their prayer of adoration as they rejoice in your presence for ever. May our voices be one with theirs in their triumphant hymn of praise: Holy...

LORD, may the sacrament we share strengthen our faith and hope in Jesus, born of a Virgin and truly God and man. By the power of his resurrection may we come to eternal joy.
