Fear not, Zechariah, your prayer has been answered; Elizabeth, your wife, will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John; he will be great before the Lord, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit even from his mother's womb; and many will rejoice at his birth. ⁊ In your strength shall the king rejoice, O Lord, and in your salvation shall he greatly exult.

FATHER, all-powerful and ever-living God, we do well always and everywhere to give you thanks through Jesus Christ our Lord.

We praise your greatness as we honour the prophet who prepared the way before your Son. You set John the Baptist apart from other men, marking him out with special favour. His birth brought great rejoicing: even in the womb he leapt for joy, so near was man's salvation. You chose John the Baptist humánæ salútis advéntum, ipse solus ómnium prophetárum Agnum redemptionis osténdit. Sed et sanctificándis étiam aquæ fluéntis ipsum baptísmatis lavit auctórem, et méruit fuso sángine suprénum illi testimoniúm exhibére.

Et ideo, cum cælórum Virtútibus, in terris te iúgiter prædicámus, maiestáti tuæ sine fine clamántes :

from all the prophets to show the world its redeemer, the lamb of sacrifice. He baptized Christ, the giver of baptism, in waters made holy by the one who was baptized. You found John worthy of a martyr's death, his last and greatest act of witness to your Son.

In our unending joy we echo on earth the song of the angels in heaven as they praise your glory for ever: Holy...

CÆLESTIS Agni convívio refécti, quæsumus, Dómine, ut Ecclésia tua, sumens de beáti Ioánnis Baptístæ generatióne lætítiam, quem ille prænuntiávit ventúrum, suæ regeneratiónis cognóscat auctórem.

LORD, you have renewed us with this eucharist, as we celebrate the feast of John the Baptist, who foretold the coming of the Lamb of God. May we welcome your Son as our Saviour, for he gives us new life, and is Lord for ever and ever.
