

My son, you should rejoice; for your brother who was dead has come back to life; he was lost and he has been found.

Prayer after Communion

Often have they fought against me from my youth. ✠ Let Israel now say: Often have they fought against me from my youth. ✠ Yet, they have not prevailed against me: my back has become an anvil for the hammering of sinners. ✠ They have long oppressed me with their iniquities. But the Lord of justice will break the neck of sinners.

Preface when the Gospel of Lazarus has been read:

VERE dignum et iustum est, æquum et salutáre, nos tibi semper et ubíque grátias ágere: Dómine, sancte Pater, omnípotens ætérne Deus: per Christum Dóminum nostrum.

FATHER, all-powerful and ever-living God, we do well always and everywhere to give you thanks through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Ipsè enim verus homo Lázarum flevit amícum, et Deus ætérnus e túmulo suscitávit, qui, humáni géneris miserátus, ad novam vitam sacris mystériis nos addúcit.

As a man like us, Jesus wept for Lazarus his friend. As the eternal God, he raised Lazarus from the dead. In his love for us all, Christ gives us the sacraments to lift us up to everlasting life.
