

EASTER SUNDAY

THE EASTER VIGIL

BLESSING OF THE FIRE LIGHTING OF THE EASTER CANDLE

The people, all supplied with candles, assemble outside the church, at the place where the fire has been prepared. If the gathering cannot be held outdoors, the faithful should enter the church directly, remaining all together, if possible, near the entrance, so that they can later move up in procession behind the Easter candle, towards the place where the Liturgy of the Word is to be celebrated.

When the people have assembled, the priest approaches the fire, with the ministers, one of whom is carrying the Easter candle. He greets the assembly, and explains briefly the meaning of this night's vigil.

He then blesses the fire:

DEUS, qui per Fílium tuum claritátis tuæ ignem fidélibus contulisti, novum hunc ignem sanctifica, et concéde nobis, ita per hæc festa paschália cæléstibus desidériis inflammári, ut ad perpétuæ claritátis puris méntibus valeámus festa pertingere.

FATHER, we share in the light of your glory through your Son, the light of the world. Make this new fire holy, and inflame us with new hope. Purify our minds by this Easter celebration and bring us one day to the feast of eternal light.

The priest then lights the Easter candle with a flame taken from the new fire. He says:

Lumen Christi glorióse resurgéntis díssipet ténebras cordis et mentis.

May the light of Christ, rising in glory, dispel the darkness of our hearts and minds.

PROCESSION

The deacon, or, if there is no deacon, the priest, takes the Easter candle, lifts it high, and sings: Lumen Christi! (Christ our light!) All answer: Deo grátias. (Thanks be to God).

All advance towards the church, led by the deacon carrying the Easter candle, and by the priest.

At the door of the church, the deacon stops and sings again: Lumen Christi! The candles of the faithful are lit with a flame taken from the Easter candle and then, all enter into the church.

When the deacon reaches the altar, he sings for the third time: Lumen Christi! Then, the lights in the church are put on.

EASTER PROCLAMATION

The Easter candle is set up on its stand. All take their places and remain standing with lighted candles during the solemn Easter Proclamation which is sung by the deacon, or, if there is no deacon, by a cantor, or even by the priest.

Hæc sunt enim festa paschália, in quibus verus ille Agnus occíditur, cuius sángine postes fidélium consecrántur.

Hæc nox est, in qua primum patres nostros, filios Ísrael edúctos de Ægýpto, Mare Rubrum sicco vestígio transíre fecísti. Hæc igitur nox est, quæ peccatórum ténebras colúmnæ illuminatione purgávit.

℣. The Lord be with you.

℟. And also with you.

℣. Lift up your hearts.

℟. We lift them up to the Lord.

℣. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

℟. It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is truly right that with full hearts and minds and voices we should praise the unseen God, the all-powerful Father, and his only Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. For Christ has ransomed us with his blood, and paid for us the price of Adam's sin to our eternal Father!

This is our passover feast, when Christ, the true Lamb, is slain, whose blood consecrates the homes of all believers.

This is the night when first you saved our fathers: you freed the people of Israel from their slavery and led them dry-shod through the sea.

This is the night when the pillar of fire destroyed the darkness of sin!

Hæc nox est, quæ hódie per univérsum mundum in Christo credéntes, a vítiis sæculi et calígne peccatórum segregátos, reddit grátia, sóciat sanctitáti.

Hæc nox est, in qua, destrúctis vínculis mortis, Christus ab ínferis victor ascéndit.

Nihil enim nobis nasci prófuit, nisi rédimi profuísset.

O mira circa nos tuæ pietátis dignátio! O inæstimábilis diléctio caritátis: ut servum redímeres, Fílium tradidísti!

O certe necessárium Adæ peccátum, quod Christi morte delétum est!

O felix culpa, quæ talem ac tantum méruit habére Redemptórem!

O vere beáta nox, quæ sola méruit scire tempus et horam, in qua Christus ab ínferis resur-réxit!

Hæc nox est, de qua scriptum est: «Et nox sicut dies illuminábitur: et nox illuminátio mea in delíciis meis.»

Huius ígitur sanctificátio noctis fugat scélera, culpas lavat: et reddit innocéntiam lapsis et mæstis lætítiam. Fugat ódia, concórdiam parat et curvat impéria.

This is the night when Christians everywhere, washed clean of sin and freed from all defilement, are restored to grace and grow together in holiness.

This is the night when Jesus Christ broke the chains of death and rose triumphant from the grave.

What good would life have been to us, had Christ not come as our Redeemer?

Father, how wonderful your care for us! How boundless your merciful love! To ransom a slave you gave away your Son.

O happy fault, O necessary sin of Adam, which gained for us so great a Redeemer!

Most blessed of all nights, chosen by God to see Christ rising from the dead!

Of this night scripture says: "The night will be as clear as day: it will become my light, my joy."

The power of this holy night dispels all evil, washes guilt away, restores lost innocence, brings mourners joy; it casts out hatred, brings us peace, and humbles earthly pride. Night truly blessed when heaven is wedded to earth and man is reconciled with God!

In huius igitur noctis grátia, súscipe, sancte Pater, laudis huius sacrificium vespertinum, quod tibi in hac cérei oblatióne sollémni, per ministrórum manus de opéribus apum, sacrosáncta reddit Ecclésia.

Sed iam colúmnæ huius præcónia nóvimus, quam in honórem Dei rútilans ignis accéndit. Qui, licet sit divísus in partes, mutuáti tamen lúminis detriménta non novit. Alitur enim liquántibus ceris, quas in substántiam pretiósæ huius lámpadis apis mater edúxit.

O vere beáta nox, in qua terrénis cæléstia, humánis divína iungúntur!

Orámus ergo te, Dómine, ut céreus iste in honórem tui nóminis consecrátus, ad noctis huius caliginem destruéndam, indeficiens perseveret. Et in odórem suavitátis accéptus, supérnis lumináribus misceátur. Flammas eius lúcifer matutínus invéniat: Ille, inquam, lúcifer, qui nescit occásus: Christus Fílius tuus, qui, regréssus ab ínferis, humáno géneri serénus illúxit, et vivit et regnat in sæcula sæculórum. R. Amen.

Therefore, heavenly Father, in the joy of this night, receive our evening sacrifice of praise, your Church's solemn offering.

Accept this Easter Candle, a flame divided but undimmed, a pillar of fire that glows to the honour of God!

Let it mingle with the lights of heaven and continue bravely burning to dispel the darkness of this night! May the Morning Star which never sets find this flame still burning: Christ, that Morning Star, who came back from the dead, and shed his peaceful light on all mankind, your Son who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

R. Amen.

Blessing of Water

Deus, qui invisíbili poténtia per sacramentórum signa mirábilem operáris efféctum, et creatúram aquæ multis modis præparásti, ut baptísmi grátiam demonstráret;

Deus, cuius Spíritus super aquas inter ipsa mundi primórdia ferebátur, ut iam tunc virtútem sanctificándi aquárum nátúra conciperet;

Deus, qui regeneratiónis spéciem in ipsa dilúvii effusióne signásti, ut uníus eiusdémque eleménti mystério et finis esset vítiis et orígo virtútum;

Deus, qui Abrahæ filios per Mare Rubrum sicco vestígio transíre fecísti, ut plebs, a Pharaónis servitúte liberáta, pópulum baptizatórum præfiguráret;

Deus, cuius Fílius, in aqua Iordánis à Ioánnē baptizátus, Sancto Spíritu est inúnctus, et, in cruce pendens, una cum ságuine aquam de látere suo prodúxit, ac post resurrectiõem suam, discíplis iussit:

ment of your love. Send your Spirit of adoption on those to be born again in baptism. And may the work of our humble ministry be brought to perfection by your mighty power.

Father, you give us grace through sacramental signs, which tell us of the wonders of your unseen power. In baptism we use your gift of water, which you have made a rich symbol of the grace you give us in this sacrament.

At the very dawn of creation your Spirit breathed on the waters, making them the well-spring of all holiness.

The waters of the great flood you made a sign of the waters of baptism, that make an end of sin and a new beginning of goodness.

Through the waters of the Red Sea you led Israel out of slavery, to be an image of God's holy people, set free from sin by baptism.

In the waters of the Jordan your Son was baptized by John and anointed with the Spirit. Your Son willed that water and blood should flow from his side as he hung upon the cross. After his resurrection he told

«Ite, docete omnes gentes, baptizantes eos in nómine Patris, et Fílii, et Spíritus Sancti»:

Réspice in fáciem Ecclésiæ tuæ, eique dignáre fontem baptismatis aperíre. Sumat hæc aqua Unigéniti tui grátiam de Spíritu Sancto, ut homo, ad imáginem tuam cónditus, sacraménto baptismatis a cunctis squalóribus vetustátis ablútus, in novam infántiam ex aqua et Spíritu Sancto resúrgere mereátur.

his disciples: "Go out and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

Father, look now with love upon your Church, and unseal for her the fountain of baptism. By the power of the Spirit give to the water of this font the grace of your Son. You created man in your own likeness: cleanse him from sin in a new birth of innocence by water and the Spirit.

The priest may lower the Easter candle into the water as he says:

Descéndat, quæsumus, Dómine, in hanc plenitúdinem fontis per Fílium tuum virtus Spíritus Sancti, ut omnes, cum Christo consepúlti per baptismum in mortem, ad vitam cum ipso resúrgant. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. ℟. Amen.

We ask you, Father, with your Son to send the Holy Spirit upon the waters of this font. May all who are buried with Christ in the death of baptism rise also with him to newness of life. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

℟. Amen.

After the blessing of the water, the catechumens are baptized individually. Newly baptized adults are confirmed immediately afterwards, either by the bishop, or by the priest who baptized them.

Blessing of Water when baptism is not celebrated

Dóminum Deum nostrum, fratres caríssimi, suppliciter exorémus, ut hanc creatúram aquæ benedicere dignétur, super nos aspergéndam in nostri memóriam baptismi. Ipse autem nos renováre dignétur, ut fidéles Spíritui, quem accépi-mus, maneámus.

My brothers and sisters, let us ask the Lord our God to bless this water he has created, which we shall use to recall our baptism. May he renew us and keep us faithful to the Spirit we have all received.

All pray silently for a short while. With hands joined, the priest continues:

Dómine Deus noster, pópulo tuo hac nocte sacratíssima vigilánti adésto propítius; et nobis, mirábile nostræ creatiónis opus, sed et redemptionis nostræ mirábílius, memorántibus, hanc aquam benedícere tu dignáre. Ipsam enim tu fecísti, ut et arva fecunditáte donáret, et levámen corpóribus nostris munditiámque præbéret. Aquam étiam tuæ minístram misericórdiæ condidísti: nam per ipsam solvísti tui pópuli servitútem illiúsque sitim in desérto sedásti; per ipsam novum foedus nuntiavérunt prophétæ, quod eras cum homínibus initúrus; per ipsam dénique, quam Christus in Iordáne sacrávit, corrúptam natúráe nostræ substántiam in regenerationis lavácro renovásti. Sit ígitur hæc aqua nobis suscépti baptísmatis memória, et cum frátribus nostris, qui sunt in Páschate baptizáti, gáudia nos tríbuas sociáre. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. ℟. Amen.

Lord our God, this night your people keep prayerful vigil. Be with us as we recall the wonder of our creation and the greater wonder of our redemption. Bless this water: it makes the seed to grow, it refreshes us and makes us clean. You have made of it a servant of your loving kindness: through water you set your people free, and quenched their thirst in the desert. With water the prophets announced a new covenant that you would make with man. By water, made holy by Christ in the Jordan, you made our sinful nature new in the bath that gives rebirth. Let this water remind us of our baptism; let us share the joys of our brothers who are baptized this Easter. We ask this through Christ our Lord. ℟. Amen.

Renewal of Baptismal Promises

All present stand with lighted candles. The priest speaks to the people in these or similar words:

Dear friends, through the paschal mystery we have been buried with Christ in baptism, so that we may rise with him to a new life. Now that we have completed our lenten observance, let us renew the promises we made in baptism when we rejected Satan and his works, and promised to serve God faithfully in his holy Catholic Church. And so:

Do you reject Satan?	℟. I do.
And all his works?	℟. I do.
And all his empty promises?	℟. I do.

Or:

Do you reject sin, so as to live in the freedom of God's children? ℟. I do.

Do you reject the glamour of evil, and refuse to be mastered by sin? ℟. I do.

Do you reject Satan, father of sin and prince of darkness? ℟. I do.

Then the priest continues:

Do you believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth? ℟. I do.

Do you believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was born of the Virgin Mary, was crucified, died, and was buried, rose from the dead, and is now seated at the right hand of the Father? ℟. I do.

Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting? ℟. I do.

The priest concludes:

God, the all-powerful Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and forgiven all our sins. May he also keep us faithful to our Lord Jesus Christ for ever and ever. ℟. Amen.

Then, the priest sprinkles the assembly while the Vidi aquam, p. 71, is sung.

The Credo is omitted.

The right hand of the Lord has done valiantly, the right hand of the Lord has exalted me; I shall not die, but I shall live, and recount the deeds of the Lord, alleluia.

SUSCIPE, quæsumus, Dómine, preces pópuli tui cum oblationibus hostiárum, ut, paschálibus initiáta mystériis, ad æternitátis nobis medélam, te operánte, proficiant.

LORD, accept the prayers and offerings of your people. With your help may this Easter mystery of our redemption bring to perfection the saving work you have begun in us.

Or:

Prayer after Communion

SPIRITUM nobis, Dómine, tuæ caritátis infúnde, ut, quos sacraméntis paschálibus satiásti, tua fácias pietáte concórdes.

LORD, you have nourished us with your Easter sacraments. Fill us with your Spirit, and make us one in peace and love.

From the Easter Vigil to the Second Sunday of Easter inclusive and on the day of Pentecost, the dimissal is sung as follows:

✠. The Mass is ended, go in peace, alleluia, alleluia.

All respond:

R. De-o grá-ti-as, alle-lú-ia, alle-lú-ia.

✠. Thanks be to God, alleluia, alleluia.
