O Zion, praise thy Saviour
thy Prince and thy Shepherd;
praise him with hymns and canticles.

Make bold to praise him with all thy strength;
for he surpasseth all praise;
thou shalt ne'er be fully equal to the task.

A special theme of praise,
the living and life-giving bread,
is on this day proposed.

Upon the table of the Last Supper,
 to the group of the brethren Twelve,
 this bread was truly given.

Let our praise ring out full and resonant,
 a song of the heart,
 joyful and radiant.

For today is a most solemn festival,
 recalling how this sacred banquet
 first was instituted.

At this banquet of our newly crowned King,
 the Paschal mystery of the New Law
 bringeth to its end the ancient Passover rite.

Pascha novae le-gis, Pha-se ve-tus térmi-nat. Ve-tustá-tem

Novelty replaceth that which is old,
reality chaseth away the shadows,
radiance doth eliminate the night.

That which Christ accomplished at this supper
he ordered to be done again,
in memory of him.

Taught by his divine precepts,
We consecrate the bread and wine,
a sacrificial victim for salvation.

This sacred doctrine do Christians receive:
the bread into his body
and the wine into his blood is changed.

What thou can neither grasp nor perceive is affirmed by ardent faith, beyond the natural order of things.

Beneath these double appearances – mere signs, and not the realities themselves – is hidden the most sublime of mysteries.

His body is food, his blood, a beverage but Christ remains entirely present under each.

His flesh, when eaten, is not torn apart,
 broken asunder or divided;
 intact he is received.

Though one alone be fed, though thousands be fed,
all receive the same reality,
which perisheth not at meal's end.

The good and the guilty may all have part therein,
but with different results:
life or death.

Death for sinners, life everlasting for the just;
mark well the varied effects
of this single food.

And when the bread is fragmented,
be thou not troubled, but remember:
he is present in each fragment
just as much as in the whole.

The hidden reality is not divided,
 the sign only is fragmented;
 He whose presence is signified,
 suffereth no diminution in stature or in strength.

* Behold this bread of Angels which hath become food for us on our pilgrimage;
 it is truly the bread of God's children,
 let it ne'er be thrown to dogs.

Scripture announced it figuratively
 by Isaac's sacrifice,
 by the paschal lamb
 and by the manna given to our forefathers.

O Good Shepherd and most true bread of life,
 Lord Jesus, have mercy on us;

tu-é-re, Tu nos bona fac vi-dé-re In terra vi-vénti- um.

sanctó-rum cí-vi- um.

feed us and protect us,
bring us to the vision of eternal riches
in the land of the living.

Thou who knowest and canst accomplish all things,
who dost feed us in this mortal life,
make us thy chosen guests,
the co-heirs and companions
of thy saints in the heavenly city.
